

The Combined South African Knee Society and South African Shoulder and Elbow Surgeons Annual Congress 2013

5 – 6 October Elephant Hills, Victoria Falls

This year we will be holding a Knee and Shoulder meeting, hosted by SAKS and SASES.

The meeting is to be held at the Elephant Hills resort at Victoria Falls, Zimbabwe on 5 and 6 October 2013.

Accommodation

Accommodation has been provisionally reserved in the Elephant Hills Hotel (4 star hotel) but needs to be booked and confirmed as soon as possible; as the rooms held will be released on the 16th of August. The cost per room for a single is $145 per room bed and breakfast (Double is $170 per room bed and breakfast). There are other more expensive and luxurious hotels (5 star) nearby, namely the Victoria Falls Hotel, Victoria Falls Safari Lodge, the Kingdom Hotel with Casino and the A'Zambezi River Lodge.

Flights

Due to availability we are recommending that we work through a central agent to do the flight bookings, in case an additional flight / larger aircraft be required for a particular day.

Please contact Chantal and indicate your intended dates of travel before 30 June 2013. We do advise that you make your flight arrangements as soon as possible.

Programme

The programme will run over 2 full days and start off with a combined session, after which the knees and shoulders will branch off into separate meetings.

The knee meetings topic is "The Science Behind Knee Surgery" and the invited speakers are Andrew Amis, Professor of Orthopaedic Biomechanics from the Imperial College London and Stephen Howell from California.

The shoulder meetings confirmed invited speakers are Angus Wallace from Nottingham and Ludwig Seebauer from Munich.

The Swedish Shoulder and Elbow Society have been invited and hopefully many will attend.

The meeting will include free papers, symposia and case discussions.
